

NOTICE

As part of the requirement to notify you of the plan termination, you have the right to make an election of the distribution of your choice, to remove your account balance from the plan. Failure to elect a distribution within 30 days of receiving this notice will result in your distribution being processed as a direct rollover into an IRA account at Hand Benefits and Trust Co.

Your IRA will be invested in an investment vehicle selected to preserve your initial investment. An annual fee, based on your account balance, will be charged to your account. For additional information about this IRA Account, including fees and investment offerings, please contact the IRA Provider, below.
